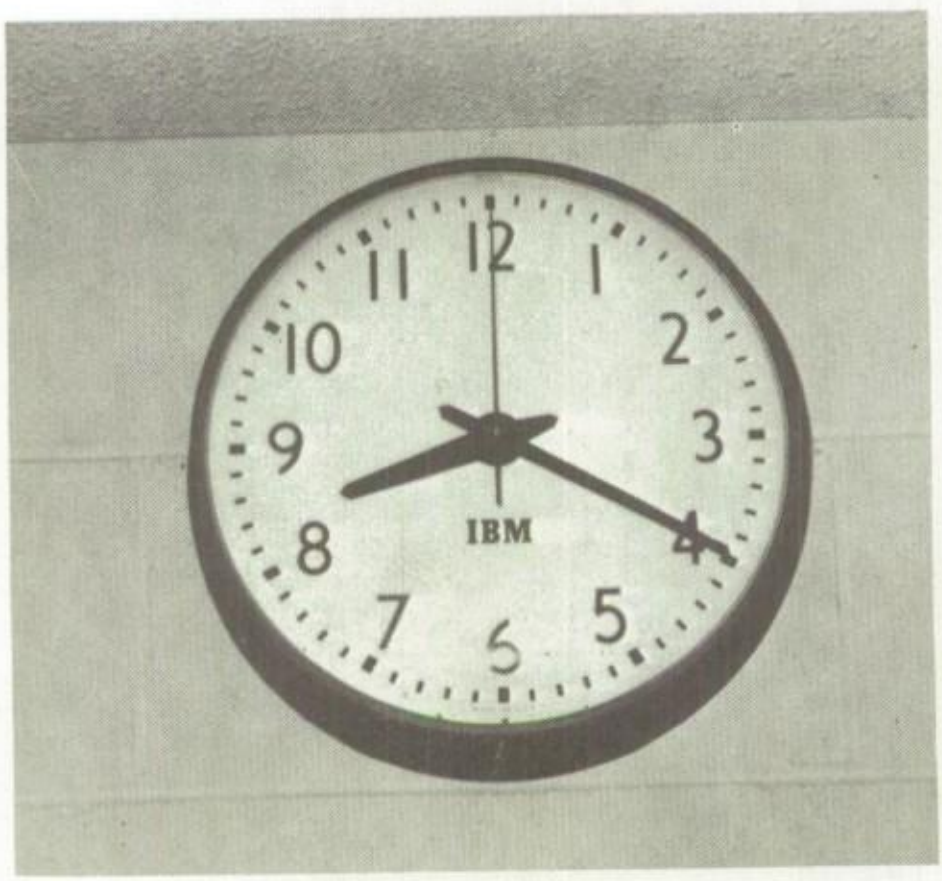
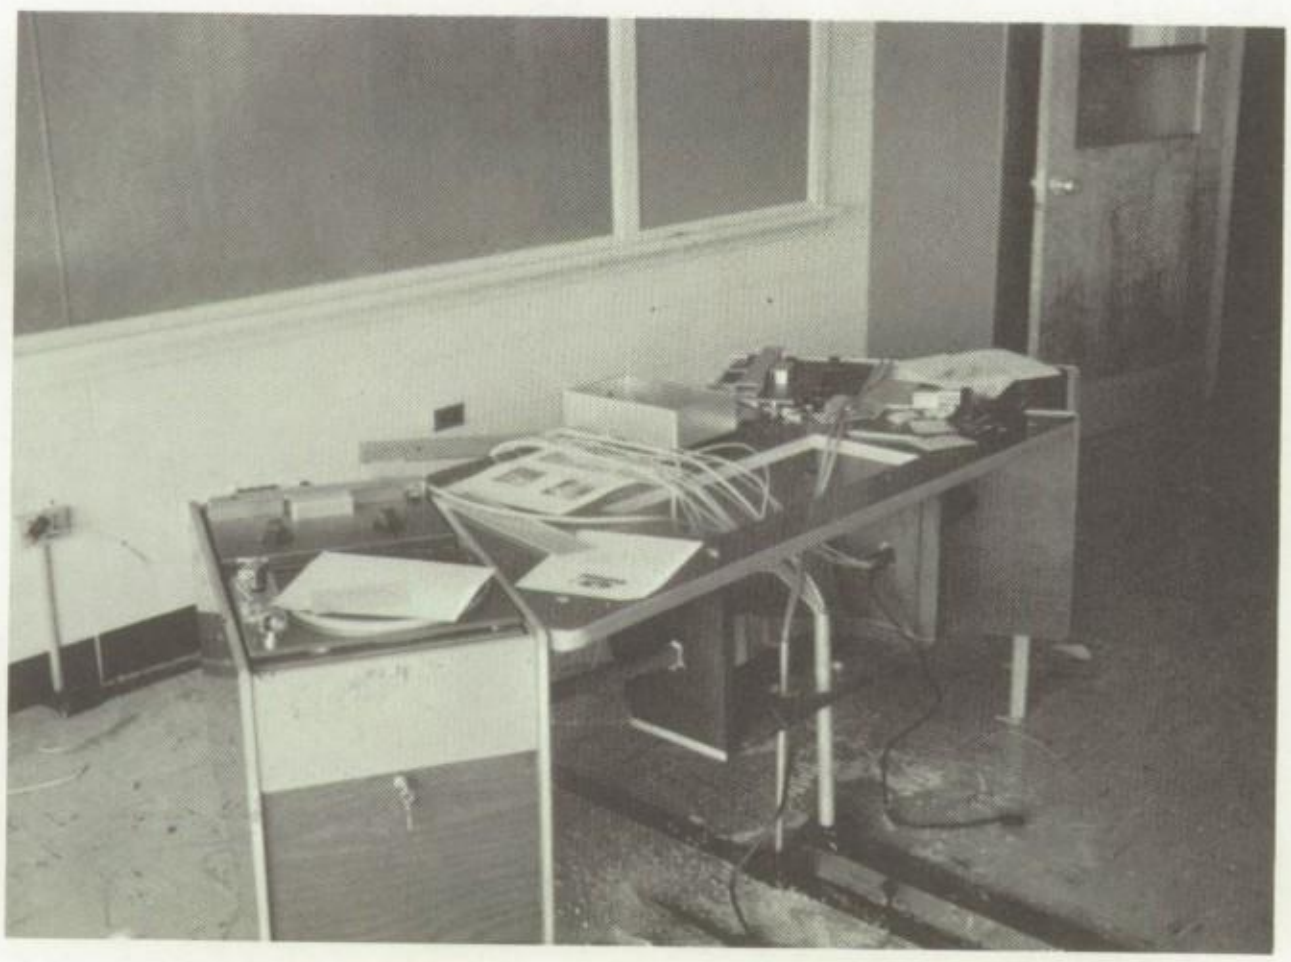
This book is dedicated to all those who have the imagination, courage, and stamina to do what they want to do, go where they want to go, and live how they want to live. Little does it matter what other people think as long as a person honestly follows his own convictions. Hopefully this is you; if so, please continue, if not, begin now to...

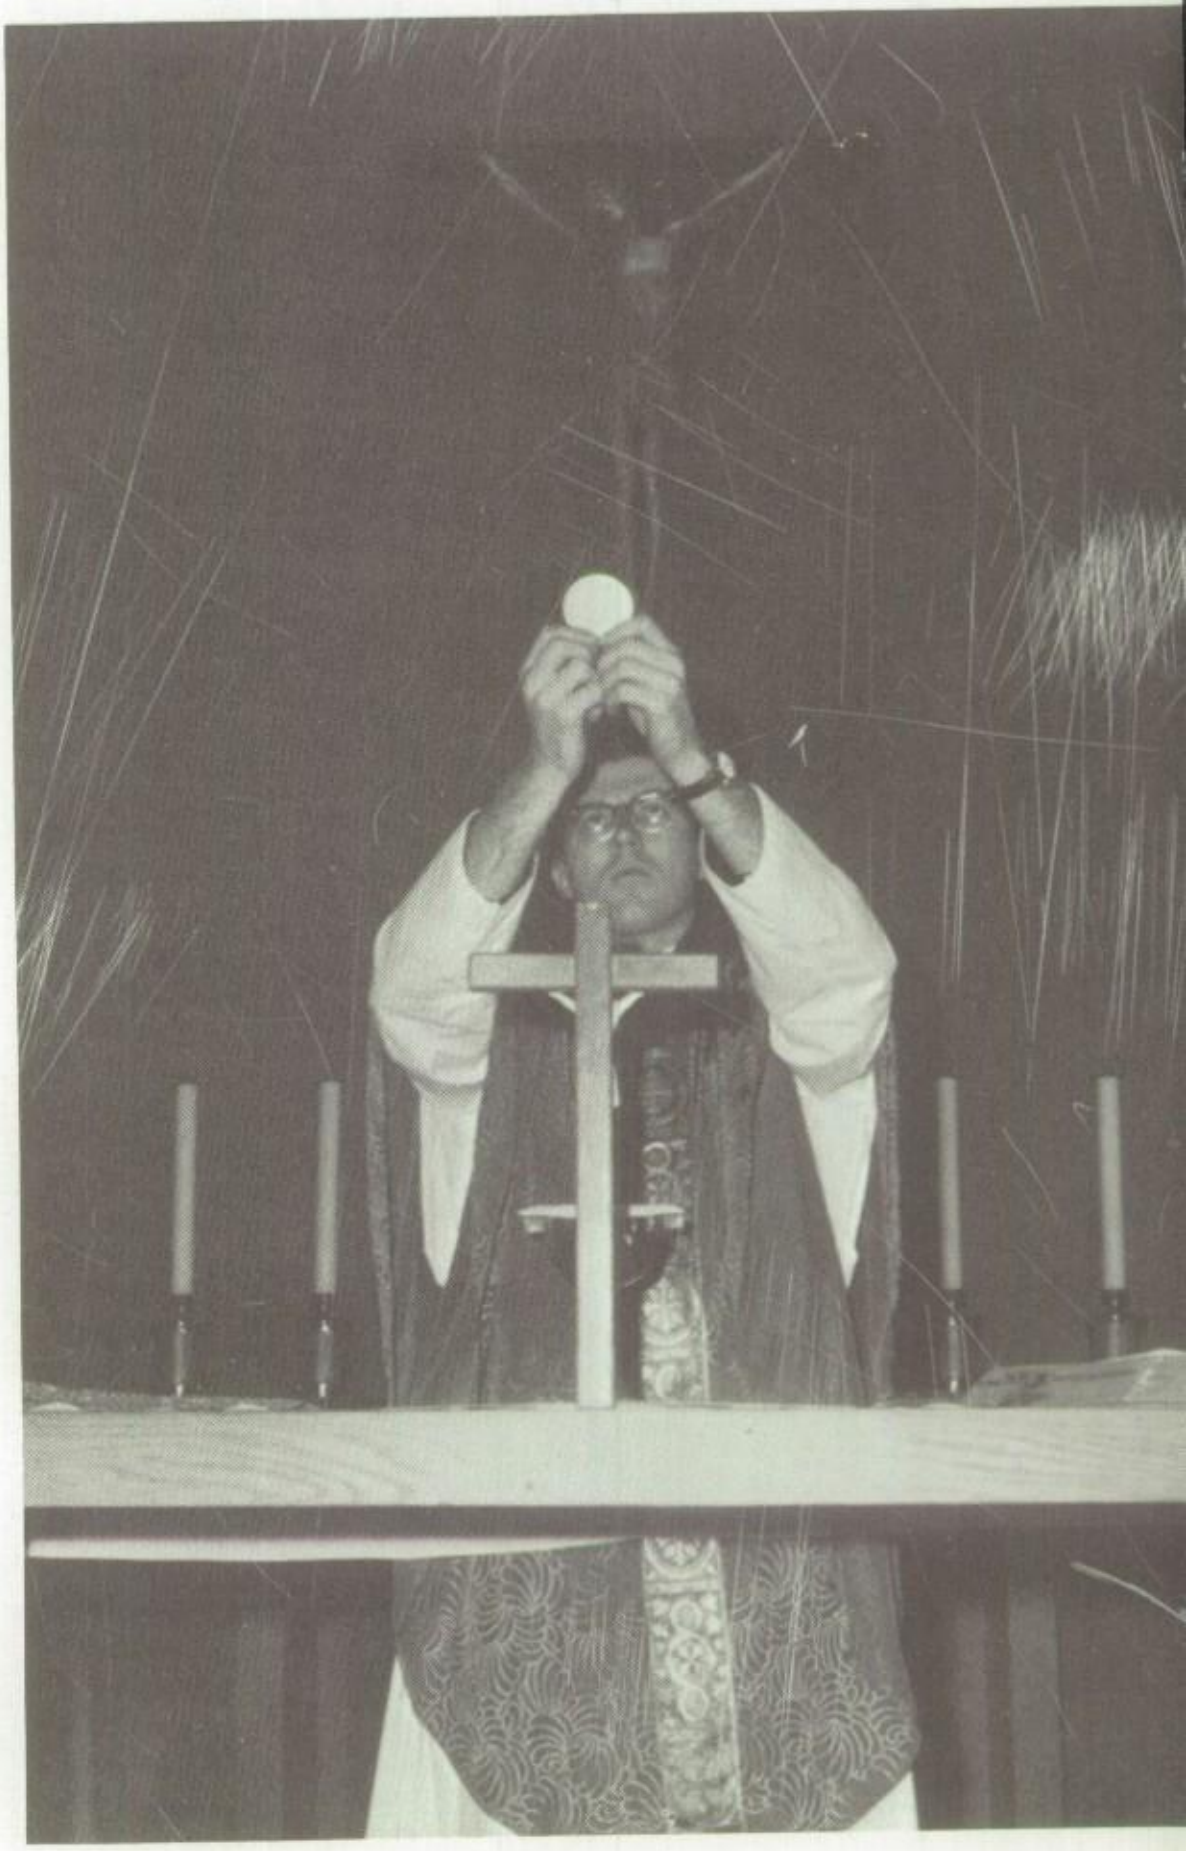
go where you want to go do what you want to do



'68 - - the year of innovations
and these were the beginnings



there was life everywhere



. . . the daily grind,

broken always

by the metallic

bangs and slams

of students

reaching for - -

posters, costumes,

and records? ! . . .

. . . a class 2,000 pounds strong

in tradition

and spirit -

things to stay with us always . . .

McGuinness Captures 14th Win

Bishop McGuinness had four turnovers the first four times it had the ball, but straightened out and took a 74-65 victory from Stoneville last night.

McGuinness fell behind in the first quarter and trailed at the half, 27-25. In the second half the Villains began to work a full-court press and took the lead with 2:17 elapsed in the third period. McGuinness won going away.

Steve Broxton and Gerry Hrenko shared scoring honors for the victors with 21 points apiece. Mike McCloskey contributed 17 and Conrad Williams 13.

Curt Bennett and Tom Roach pitched in 17 and 13 points respectively for the losers.

Bishop McGuinness is now 14-5 after winning its fifth straight.

Moving up?

Go North American...it costs no more

Moving up is a new opportunity for you and your family to find new horizons of happiness and success. A new home. New friends. New places to see. Nicer things. Make one of them North American . . . it costs no more. Then, when the van pulls up at your new home, your neighbors will know you've really arrived.
